The Times of Your Life at M.U.

Selecting a theme for a university yearbook is a somewhat difficult task. An effective yearbook theme is one that can be followed throughout the entire book, from beginning to end, making the book a unified whole.

The theme for the 1982 Millikin University yearbook, The Millidek, is "The Times of Your Life." We think that this theme perfectly expresses our lives here at Millikin. We each experience different moments in our lives, and the yearbook is one mode of capturing and expressing those many, meaningful moments by means of pictures and words.

The main objective of a yearbook is to provide memories of years gone by — particularly your years at Millikin University. This theme vividly captures every aspect of our lives at Millikin in activities, classes, organizations, honors, fine arts, sports, and student life styles.

The following passage summarizes time and its relation to our lives.

"There is an appointed time for everything,
  and a time for every affair under the heavens.
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.
A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to tear down, and a time to build.
A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.
A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.
A time to seek and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away.
A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to be silent, and a time to speak.
A time of love, and a time of hate; a time of war, and a time of peace." — Nick Smith
Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8

The Campus on the Hill

Up the reputable walks of old established trees
They stalk, children of the nouveaux riches; chimes
Of the tall Clock Tower drench their heads in blessing:
"I don't wanna play at your house;
I don't like you any more."
My house stands opposite, on the other hill,
Among meadows, with the orchard fences down and falling;
Deer come almost to the door.
You cannot see it, even in this clearest morning
White birds hang in the air between
Over the garbage landfill and those homes thereto adjacent,
Hovering slowly, turning, settling down
Like the flakes sifting imperceptibly onto the little town
In a waterball of glass.
And yet, this morning, beyond this quiet scene,
The floating birds, the backyards of the poor,
Beyond the shopping plaza, the dead canal, the hillside lying tilted in the air,
Tomorrow has broken out today:
Riot in Algeria, in Cyprus, in Alabama;
Aged in wrong, the empires are declining,
And China gathers, soundlessly, like evidence.
What shall I say to the young on such a morning? —
Mind is the one salvation? — also grammar? —
No; my little ones lean not toward revolt. They Are the Whites, the vaguely furiously driven, who resist
Their souls with such passivity
As would Quakers swear. All day, dear Lord, all day
They wear their godhead lightly.
They look out from their hill and say,
To themselves, "We have nowhere to go but down;
The great destination is to stay."
Surely the nations will be reasonable;
They look at the world — don't they? — the world's way?
The clock just now has nothing more to say

MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY

Freshman Camp — 1981

Students tug on the M.U. faculty.

Kristi Olafson and John Blakeman try to gather their freshmen.

Diane Attig, Beth Ifft, Beth Witt, and Rachel Ferry wait patiently for the buses.

Freshman Camp also has a serious side.

As part of the University orientation program, all freshmen are encouraged to attend this pre-school overnight session at nearby Allerton Park.

This lovely setting provides a relaxing atmosphere where freshmen, selected upperclassmen, faculty and administrators can get acquainted and informally discuss life at Millikin.

The agenda also includes meeting the University president, talking with faculty advisers, meeting chairmen of the academic departments; as well as sports, dancing and singing.

Homecoming 1981 — "Around the World in 80 Years"

Homecoming, one of the biggest events of the year, is the time when alumni return to the campus from their residences and places of employment throughout the world to renew memories.

"Around the World in 80 Years" was the theme for Millikin Homecoming 1981 activities recognizing the 80th anniversary of the founding of Millikin in 1901, and the significant events of the eight decades since then.

This year's events included a trivia bowl, homecoming games, a parade, reunion lunches for various classes and the 1961 undefeated football team, a football game against Elmhurst, and a homecoming concert featuring Ray Stevens and the Millikin Jazz Lab Band where Peggy Drew and Greg Twist were crowned queen and king for Homecoming 1981.

Wintertime at Millikin

Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village, though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer to stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark, and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

Robert Frost 1923

Class of Nineteen Eighty-Two

To the Senior Class:

Congratulations on the approaching completion of your study at Millikin University. For most of you, it is the culmination of an experience that I hope has been both demanding and enjoyable.

You have prepared for a variety of careers, and you each have unique goals. For all of you, however, new challenges and greater opportunities lie ahead. You are ready for new responsibilities, and I am confident that you will face these responsibilities with wisdom and enthusiasm.

Millikin has benefited from your presence on campus. Please come back to see us often.

Sincerely,

J. Roger Miller

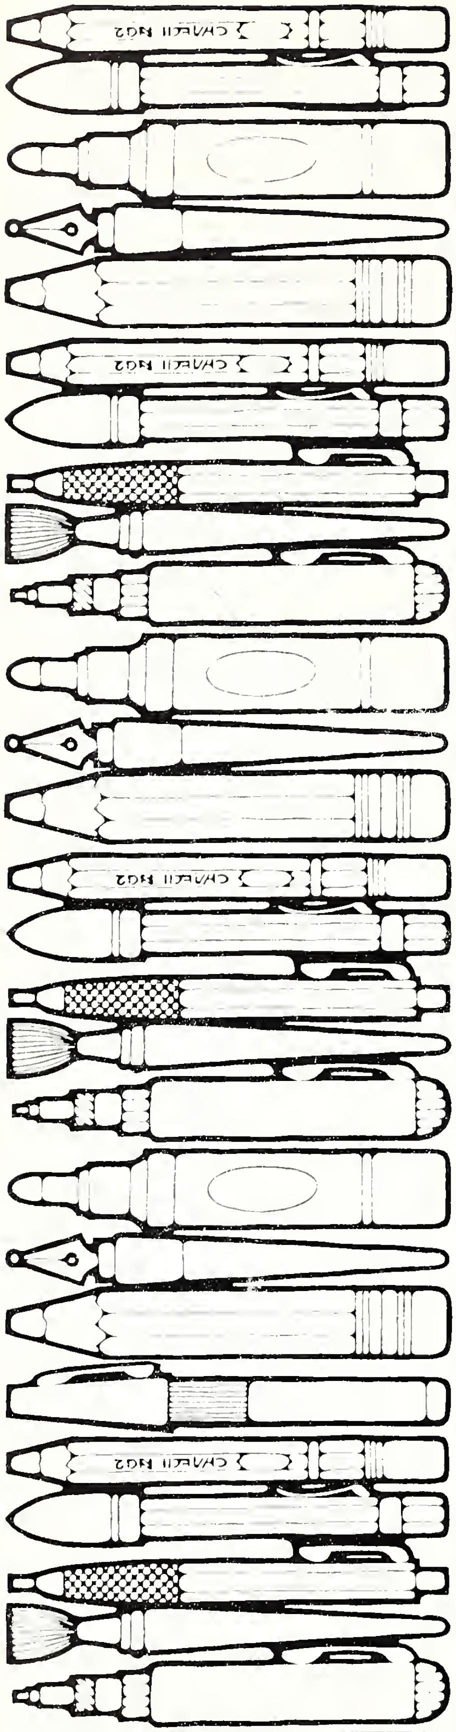
The Writing Center



The Writing Center, staffed by professionals, is a new academic support system on campus. The purpose of the Center is to provide all students at Millikin with additional individual help in writing. Learning to write is a lifelong process which requires continuous practice and continuous guidance; the existence of The Writing Center helps to provide that guidance. Terry Shepherd is director of The Writing Center.

Millikin Football

The Millikin football team came back in the last part of the season, winning 3 of its final 4 games and finishing with an overall record of 4-5 and a 3-5 CCIW mark.

Junior linebacker Jim Perryman, co-winner of the outstanding defensive player award in the CCIW, was named MVP.

Senior center Greg Twist was named Millikin's most valuable offensive lineman and senior defensive lineman. Neal and Twist shared co-captain honors.

Tim Mecha, who took over as quarterback when Jerry Panfil was injured at mid-season, was named M.U. most valuable offensive back. Marty Heller was named Millikin's most valuable player in the game against Augustana, which was a regionally televised game by ABC Television. 16 seniors among 54 players received varsity football letters.

Coach Merle Chapman who has been coach for the past five seasons and posting a 32-13 record and 3 conference titles, resigned as football coach. Taking over for Chapman will be his long time assistant Carl Poelker.

Coach Peg Voisin's debut as Millikin's new volleyball coach was a success, with the team winning a school record 24 matches and finishing fifth in the state tournament.

Millikin ended its season with a 24-13-1 record and its best showing in the IAIAW Division III State Tournament. The women had a 2-2 record in state play and were eliminated by champion Elmhurst, the same team that beat Millikin in the title match at Chicago.

Senior Cynthia Hogan was named MVP. Hogan and junior Lisa Lane, who was named to the all-state tournament team, were team co-captains.

Lane led in team spikes for the season, spiking percentage and tied with sophomore Brenda Hogan for best serving average. Sophomore Brenda Winkler led the team in blocks throughout the season and in ace serves for the season, most serves for the season, most sets, and serve receive.

Three seniors were among the squad's 15 letter winners, which also won its own Millikin Invitational, were second place finishers in the University of Chicago Invitational and ICC Invitational, and place fifth in the North Central Tournament.

This year, due to an interest of both students and Coach Don Luy, a women's cross country club was started.

Under Coach Luy's direction, the women practiced with and participated in two meets with the men's cross country team. Each member ran in at least one of the scheduled meets.

The club participated in the Washington University Invitational, and the Principia Invitational, where Angie Sparks and Linda Horve placed second and fifth respectively.

The club also ran in the Decatur Recreational Department Turkey Trot on November 21. Top finishers in the 18-29 age 5000 meter race ran at Fairview Park were Angie Sparks, second place, and Karen Kramer, third place.

As a result of the growing interest in women's cross country here at Millikin, the club will have team standing as of next year.

Coach Don Luy's cross country team finished the season with a 2-1 record in dual meets and was seventh in the CCIW team standings for the fifth successive season and improved its point total over the previous year.

Senior Steve Schmidt was named MVP. Schmidt, who also was the team captain, finished 16th overall and was M.U.'s top finisher in the CCIW championships. Junior Greg Collingwood finished 17th.

Highlights of the cross country season included second place finishes in the Lincoln Land Open and Greenville Invitational, and third place finishes in the Principia Invitational and at the Illinois small college meet. The team also placed seventh out of fifteen in the Washington University Invitational.

Eight runners were letter winners, and sophomore Ken Brown was named most improved runner.

M.U. Tennis

Under new coach Leslie Randle the women's tennis team compiled a 7-3 record in dual matches. They won a record number of matches during the season; topping the previous record of six victories set last year.

Senior Susan Krows, returning to the squad after a years absence, was named the most valuable player. Three-year letter winners Susan Krows and Betina Diaz Pons were the only seniors on the tennis team.

Letter winners were seniors Susan Krows and Diaz Pons, juniors Liz Gaffner and Emily Kirby, sophomores Becky Hays and Karen Smith, and freshman Cari Hartnagel.

The only dim spot for the tennis team was in the state tourney where all the Millikin players were eliminated in the first round.

A Brief History of Millikin

It was 1901 and a recent census of Decatur showed a population of 20,754. A professional baseball league was being organized, the fly-swatter was a relatively new invention and the automobile was just beginning to make an impact on life in the United States.

Amid this background, Millikin University was founded in 1901 as an institution of higher education through the joint efforts of a Decatur philanthropist, Decatur citizens and members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

A pacesetter in higher education since its beginning, Millikin now enrolls approximately 1500 men and women in a variety of degree programs offered through the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Business and Industrial Management, the School of Music and the School of Nursing.

Students come from throughout the United States and from several foreign countries although the largest concentration of students is from Illinois. The University is affiliated with the United Presbyterian Church U.S.A. and its academic program is nonsectarian and available to students without regard to racial, religious, economic or social backgrounds.

Millikin University is the result of the dream of James Millikin, one of Decatur's leading citizens who hoped for an institution where the "scientific, the practical and industrial would have a place of equal importance with the literary and classical."

Although Millikin University was founded in 1901, the first academic term did not begin until the fall of 1903. In the meantime, a campus had to be built.

Ceremonial laying of the cornerstone of Liberal Arts Hall, still a main campus building, was in June, 1902, and the building was dedicated a year later with President Theodore Roosevelt delivering the dedicatory address.

First president of the University was Kansas educator Dr. Albert R. Taylor who was charged with the responsibilities of recruiting an able faculty, encouraging students to attend the new school and supervising construction of satisfactory facilities. The impressive record of achievement started by Dr. Taylor has been continued under the leadership of Dr. J. Roger Miller, ninth president of Millikin.

The face of Millikin University has changed considerably during the last 15 years and the 40-acre campus is now filled with a combination of stately older buildings of the original Elizabethan style and newer more modern buildings.

Evidence of these changes are Staley Library and Richards Treat University Center.

Staley Library is a five-level structure and was dedicated in the spring of 1978. In addition to providing traditional library services, the building contains a Learning Resurces Center featuring classrooms complete with the latest in audio-visual equipment.

Richards Treat University Center, dedicated in 1979, houses student dining facilities, a snack bar, small meeting-dining rooms, a game room and a large multi-purpose area.

Dedicated in 1970 were Kirkland Fine Arts Center and Griswold Physical Education Center.

Kirkland Fine Arts Center includes art galleries, classrooms and a 2,000-seat auditorium. A university-community Concert Series and a student-sponsored Convocations Series annually bring to campus outstanding orchestras, entertainers and speakers.

Griswold Physical Education Center is the home of the Big Blue athletic teams. The building features an excellent pool for competitive or recreational swimming, a running track, classrooms, and is equipped to provide numerous teaching areas.

Since its beginning, when the dreams of James Millikin represented a somewhat unique philosophy in higher education of combining liberal arts and professional training, the University has attempted to meet the challenges of the day. A sound financial position, an attractive campus, a scholarly faculty and student body and quality academic programs are evidences of success in meeting those challenges.

The 1981-82 Yearly

During the year 1981 and the first half of 1982 we have witnessed many momentous events, and these events have had a unique effect on each and everyone of us. Therefore, we are providing this space for you to note any events which happened during this past school year that were particularly unique for you. Then, every time you look through this yearbook you will be reminded of those special events of "The Times of Your Life."

Convocations Series 1981-1982

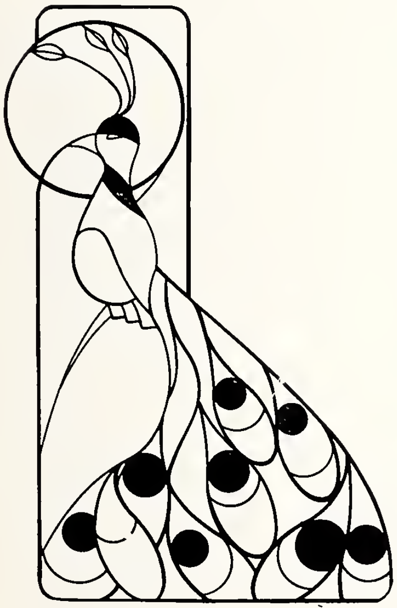
The Convocations Series is chosen annually by a committee of Millikin students and faculty. As a whole, the program attempts to provide the Millikin community with an interesting and diversified schedule of entertainment. Past seasons have included individual performers, popular speakers, and events of theatrical importance. Convocations programs remain ever-popular with Millikin students by reason of variety and financial accessability — the Series is funded by student fees.

BILLY CRYSTAL — College audience favorite, comedian Billy Crystal comes to Kirkland stage. A versatile young man, Crystal has worked in movies, written television comedy, and stars in the TV spoof "Soap". Unfortunately, although a college graduate with a family background steeped in contact with jazz greats and the music business in general, Crystal remains unable to play the clarinet.

ERNEST BORGNINE — Academy Award-honored character actor Ernest Borgnine appears in a one-man show. Co-produced by Borgnine and Samuel Gallu, "An Offer You Can't Refuse" details the lives of three generations of Mafia chiefs: Borgnine portrays the grandfather, father, and son in this philosophical black comedy.

McLAIN FAMILY BAND— The sounds of guitar, banjo, mandolin, accordion, fiddle, and bass blend into the uniquely stirring harmonies and rhythms of bluegrass. For twelve years the McLain Family Band of Berea, Kentucky has been travelling across the United States performing this indigenous folk music with their own special style and flavor. From playing for family enjoyment the McLain Family Band has come to mean fun and entertainment for folks the world over.

DAVID SEEBACH— At age six, David Seebach received his first magic set; today, Seebach is an award-winning magician and illusionist. The Wonders of Magic roadshow includes such dazzling crowd-thrillers as floating bodies, wild animals, daring escapes, and beautiful women — now you see 'em, now you don't. Seebach educates as well as performs, instructing magic to theatre students, and is also an accomplished actor.



University Concert Series

"Mr. Saxophone," the delightful Boots Randolph annually plays to a capacity crowd at Kirkland. A self-taught musician, Randolph mastered both the ukelele and slide trombone while still a kid playing with his family in local Kentucky talent contests. During high school, he switched to sax, and the rest has become, as they say, history. Since the production of Boots Randolphs' first album, Yakety Sax, in the late Fifties, Randolph has been hailed as the premier tenor saxophonist in the world.

World-famous dancers Jose Greco and Nana Lorca join with Jorge Tyller, Mexican dance authority, in a production of the Ballet Folkforico Mexicana produced by Stephen Rapaport and the National Theatre for the Performing Arts. Spanish guitar, colorful costumes, and skillfully moving bodies form an exciting combination of Hispanic and Mexican dance.

Internationally acclaimed soprano Clamma Dale made her opera debut in 1975. Since then, she has performed with many of the worlds great opera companies, as well as on Broadway. Dale has performed with symphonies and chamber groups, and is active in music education. Clamma Dale integrates her acting skills and vocal mastery into remarkable recital artistry.

The sprightly score of Lerner and Loewe's musical "Camelot" has thrilled and been applauded by theatre-goers both young and old. Harlequin Theatricals, in conjunction with Columbia Artists Theatricals, mounted a successful touring production of "Camelot" for the 1981-82 season. On stage unfolds the tale of legendary King Arthur, his Queen Guinevere, Merlin, Lancelot and the Knights of the Round Table with peerless finery and romance.

Under the competent direction of conductor David Gilbert, the Orchestra of Illinois has recently developed a reputation for solid musicianship and lively symphonic interpretation. These talented musicians provide harmonious counterpoint and musical enjoyment.

A Final Word

The yearbook staff would like to greatfully acknowledge the following individuals who helped in putting together this book:

Mary Tupper, Marguerite Michael, Polly Dill, Jewell Moffett, Virginia Mann, Lillian Lewis, Jean Patrick, Liz Hill, Jan Devore, Irene McGorray, Nancy Whitten, Paul Buck, Rebecca Harbaugh, Pen Engelbrecht, and anyone else who helped in any way. A special thanks to Bob Donnelly and Herff-Jones yearbooks for all of their help.

The name of Kathryn Trask was accidentally omitted from the page of staff acknowledgements. At this time we would like to thank Kathryn for the work she did for the yearbook. She was on the organizational staff.

The poem Stopping By Woods On a Snowy Evening was reprinted by permission of Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc.: From The Poetry of Robert Frost, edited by Edward Connery Lathem. Copyright 1969 by Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc.

The poem The Campus On the Hill was reprinted by permission of Alfred A. Knopf, Inc. From Heart's Needle copyright 1958 by W.D. Snodgrass.

The paintings used for the fraternities and sororities were reprinted by permission of David James of The House of James in Champaign, Illinois.

As you have probably already noticed there is no index printed in the yearbook. In an effort to cut costs we had to delete ten pages from the yearbook; as a result, we could not put an index at the end of the book. However, the staff has compiled an index that will be distributed with the yearbooks.
